In this respect, in-many-ways the re-ontologising enterprises of Socratic-philosophers <sup>103</sup>universalising-idealisation and budding-positivists positivism/rational-empiricism (as to their correspondingly given <sup>7</sup>unblurriness/blurriness—threshold~framing/formulation/catchmenting/truncating/compulsing/linearising of ancient-sophists non-universalising and medieval-scholasticism nonpositivising) could only arise as to the reality of an underlying manifest ‘overall social intellection-aptitude body’ (of many an ancient-sophist non-universalising and many a medieval-scholastics nonpositivising) in ‘placing a higher value on inherent prospective knowledge elucidation as effectively what precedes the possibility for prospective human re-ontologising’; and thus the susceptibility of this underlying manifest ‘overall social intellection-aptitude body’ to the eliciting of human ontological-commitment<sup>66</sup> and universal-transparency<sup>104</sup> of <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> (with respect to underlying human ‘crossgenerational notional~firstnaturedness-formativeness-<as-to-

But then beyond such a sphere of directly personal and communal consequences, rhetorising impressioning and ~~disontologising/subontologising~~—oddballing carries much more hideous and indirect desovereignising and de-intellectualising implications with respect to broader political, social, economic and other institutional policy and orientation frameworks (as so-reflected historically with tactical media, legal and public policy destabilisation/undermining, with the ‘referenced formulaically~passivated/~~linearised~~-forwardfacing—institutional~~~existentialising~~—framing-by-enframing/{worlding} mere frontage’ construed as of a ‘public threshold of tolerance/ineptitude’ to be tactically toyed with by such rhetorising impressioning and ~~disontologising/subontologising~~—oddballing). It is herein contended that beyond the directly manifest public policy implications of rhetorising impressioning and ~~disontologising/subontologising~~—oddballing, rhetorising further manifests circuitously/indirectly as to a surreptitious posturing all along the ‘intellectual production process and its derived policy fulfilment and orientations’ in critically preempting and stifling sovereign claims/interests ‘intellectual construction and translation/formulation/articulation’; as so-reflected increasingly as to self-serving institutional capital and assetising conception of knowledge (of manifest institutionalising—inflative-distortion-<as-to-prior_mere-formulaicity/ritualisation-failing-prospective-profound-supererogation<sup>9c</sup>> institutionalising/organising/mutualising/methodologising). many ways the ‘grossly impertinent and intellectually irrational supposed critique’ of postmodern thought (by such rhetorising impressioning and ~~disontologising/subontologising~~—oddballing) in-effect portends of a much more conscious/unconscious sinister and intellectually-irrelevant purpose of preemptively undermining its ‘overarching intellectual construction and translation/formulation/articulation’ of democratic and overall human emancipation sovereign claims/interests. It is important for a ‘re-ontologising existential-~~disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism~~ conception’ to deliberately articulate the uncompromising implications (not of a ‘discrete conception of individual intellectual-and-moral responsibility/relative-reflexivity or irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity’ which is ontologically-vague with respect to requisite postconverging-~~aporeticism-overcoming/unovercoming~~) but rather of manifest individuative-conscious/unconscious implications of ‘protracted-social—as-to-individual-by-institutional-by-social relative direct/deferential-responsibility/relative-reflexivity-or-irresponsibility/relative-unreflexivity to cogency_chronicularity/annality-of-relative-reflexivity,-as-to-profound-supererogation<sup>96</sup>’. social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ that its most critical/grave moments are moments at which it is hardly/poorly present/existent as to its ‘given implied totalising-entailing
Great Depression rather elicited statal supererogatory—progressivity extending into the postwar era of sociopolitical and socioeconomic value renewal that can hardly be qualified as of capitalistic instigation in the pure sense of the word and in-many-ways the technocracy developed and resourced in the postwar years and the associated scientific and technical advancement especially in the face of the Cold War in-many-ways speak to an underlying supererogatory—progressivity on which waves the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ rode as so-reflected by Eisenhower cautioning about the U.S. militaro-industrial complex potential sycophantic exploitation of such overall national supererogatory—progressivity and further reflected as to the accruing of national technical and scientific dividends incommensurably to private capitalistic actors. Furthermore, moments of national socio-economic crises as to such capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-

social-stake-contention-or-confliction' have always been critically involved with recouping and reallocating resources and means for a 'poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model of social ascendancy with respect to public externalities, taxation and public debt' as such a capitalistic model increasingly developed in later years into a preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic parasitising renting economic model associated with the explosion of financialisation especially as it substitutes/arrogates the social capacity to instigate formative supererogatory–progressivity initiatives (as it can now be appreciated that in-many-ways much of the postwar economy arose as of strong public and local governance directed investment in public infrastructure, housing and property which supererogatory–progressivity in-many-ways is now capitalistically substituted/arrogated rather as of a short-term renting-model that thrives upon creating winners and losers as to asset inflation strategy for skewed value-extraction). In a critical respect all the creative social supererogatory–progressivity after the postwar years is now reduced in terms of public mitigation of the deleterious fallouts from the capitalistic model all other social supererogatory–progressivity possibilities are now effectively assumed to lie with propping up a poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model (with respect to public subventions, bailouts, taxbreaks) and so notwithstanding the massive financial gains and transfers to tax havens as to a global economy of contrasting rising wealth disparity with the supererogatory–progressivity for individual and social creative initiatives construed as lying in a labour subsistence surrendering to whatever modest possibilities such capitalistic model makes available as supposedly an absolutely determining construct of human supererogatory–progressivity possibilities (while overlooking the reality of its manifest renting parasitising of social value and value possibilities). This in effect speaks to a 'renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic colonising of the social capacity for supererogatory–progressivity' as to imply that the social capacity for initiative can only be logged/cultured into the expropriating/estranging/constraining/limiting capitalistic model and so-reflected as of a globalised framework of totalising-entailing interlocking corporate interests and corporate welfaring that in effect critically and implicitly dictates to states (as of the subtle threat of runaway financial and economic disaster and/or state political-economy retrogradation for non-compliance) the very possibility for their full-capacity for supererogatory–progressivity while being well aloof of the public accounting that political actors running states have to fulfill thus speaking to a most fundamental globalised capitalistic induced democratic-deficit while relatively disempowered governments are left to pick-up-the-pieces (while preconverging/postconverging–de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically hemmed-in by the clerical counsels championing the capitalistic model) as to the blindness/sightlessness of a general public backlash (directed to media-driven impressionable narratives rather than to the protracted implications of the roguish capitalistic model), and so as to the more critical preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic international capitalistic system usurpation and undermining of the possibility for social supererogatory–progressivity and rendering democratic processes circularly unsatisfactory with the electorate increasingly resorting to protest and anti-incumbent votes. In-many-ways thus the supererogatory–progressivity potential of the global economy presents more opportunities than the capitalistic model arrogantly seem to imply as in-many-ways it can be argued that as of individual and social supererogatory–progressivity much of ‘vocational rationale’, ‘vocational skills’, ‘vocational economic models’ and ‘vocational creativity’ underlying the capitalistic model can perfectly thrive without capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’; and so as to the fact that the very notion of capitalistic enterprising across the world takes various shapes and forms wherein the ‘more doctrinaire skewed value-extraction and market distorting models’ ride-the-wave of profound value creation activities (often of poorly compensated supererogatory–progressivity) and in-many-ways undermining the inclination for profound value creation as to the shortcut for short-term returns. This capitalistic model of skewed value-extraction undermines the possibility of overall human supererogatory–progressivity as to when in the contest between optimal-resource-allocation for value-creation as to the requisite creativity for individuals and social supererogatory–progressivity and skewed value-extraction eventually reflects poorly self-sustaining capitalistic model (but for mechanisms of external and foreign relocations exploiting the externalities investments in education and infrastructure of second and third world countries) but still posing the question as to how skewed value-extraction can preconverging/postconverging–de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically address in the long-run issues of requisite social and public investment as a requisite for a theoretically self-sustaining economic model (not critically driven and supported by the supererogatory–progressivity prioritisation of local or foreign state) as ‘arrogating public supererogatory–progressivity at the exclusion of overall social and resourcefulness/ingenious possibilities’. Interestingly, the more explicit manifestation of supererogatory–progressivity as underlying any given underpinning–suprasocial-construct is most obvious today with the Chinese economic revolution as to the creative impetus driving its overall socioeconomic transformation. Here again it is fair to say just like with the Japanese and South Korean economic revolutions (given their more uniform and deferential populations) there is a whole directedness here (beyond just a purist capitalism model especially of a renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic model) and so as to ‘country supererogatory–progressivity directed whole socioeconomic transformation project’, and in-many-ways the capacity for the Chinese to now begin to invest abroad lies with this relatively healthy supererogatory–progressivity conception/model less betrothed to short-term skewed value-extraction poorly capable of fulfilling the necessary externalities investment to thrive in weaker developing markets (in contrast to the long-term resource-allocation needed to make such markets stable and sustainable). But then in reality when push-came-to-shove the fact is that the postwar history of all modern developed governments was hardly about their naïve subjection to a purist capitalistic model to rebuild themselves as in reality their redevelopment involved initial and massive public-driven investments in association with already matured nation-building human resource as to the reality of their supererogatory–progressivity national development programmes (especially as in the middle of the 20th century international trade accounted for just a small part of economic growth) and it is this that purportedly then gave way in later years to a the rising capitalistic model associated with privatisations and private equitisation; and this supererogatory–progressivity model applied in the postwar governments of Western Europe, the United States as well as China, Japan and South Korea as to their initial economic redevelopment. Paradoxically one of the most deleterious postwar economic policy stances advanced with respect to many a third world country as to the prodding of international economic organisations and as ‘abstractly and vaguely theorised’ by capitalist economists was the advocacy of nation-building in the third world following their postwar independence on the basis of the purist capitalistic model, thus leading in-many-ways to perpetuating the dependence of these nations on these international economic organisations as having to submit to the capitalistic ‘shallow-supererogation<sup>96</sup> of supererogatory–progressivity’ as so-associated with debt servitude and preconverging/postconverging–de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic adjustment programmes. The fact then is that the only nations in the postwar years that ‘truly experienced anything closed to the pure capitalistic economic model as devoid of any national supererogatory–progressivity investment-drive and social programmes mitigation for the consequences of the capitalistic model’ are in-many-ways third world countries of limited human and natural resources to be capable of instigating national supererogatory–progressivity with respect to their incipiently disadvantageous circumstances (especially compounded by their limited nation-building human resources) and this in-many-ways accounts for their high and relatively inefficient and subsistence informal sectors as to the relative inability of state resources to construct profound and sustainable projects of socioeconomic development (and even then when given the chance with the little means available as of a natural intuition they resorted essentially to supererogatory–progressivity initiatives like education and basic infrastructural capacities that will hardly pass the test of a true profit-driven and value-extraction capitalistic model), and more critically so as to their more profound interests in social stability in-the-very-first-place which can only arise as from a basic level of social wellbeing of their populations before even practically utterly appropriating any such abstract capitalistic model rationale (which in-many-ways actually served to induce a skewed logic on the basis of which natural resources exploiting corporations from developed countries exploit third world natural resources on unfair shallow-supererogation<sup>96</sup> economic terms) and as the short-termism of such a capitalistic model can hardly contribute to inducing the requisite political stability for sustained economic progress (with the capitalistic model as to its self-serving requirement rather warranting the requisite externalities possibilities for its thriving to be established beforehand). The more abstract rationale here (as to ‘human-decisionality-<as-to-play-of-valid/invalid-decisionality-imbued-sublimation/desublimation> omni-potential commensurability with inherent immanent-existence’s sublimation-structure’/omnipotentiality) is to reflect the reality today of underlying human supererogatory–progressivity as to the incipient reality that human family, communal, clanic and national communities cannot truly operate on the totalising-entailing basis of a purist capitalistic model of social organisation (as to the very risk of undermining social organisation as reflected in the relative prioritisation of national education and basic public facilities in the post-independence years in many Third world countries) with such a purist conception rather reflected as to capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ in a rather comprehensively developed framework/mechanism of value-allocation and value-extraction necessarily underlied notionally by a basic level of supererogatory–progressivity allow for the ‘delusion/sleight projected about a purist conception of capitalism’ (serving rather the more veridical and underlying self-serving ‘dominance/vested-interest—drivenness-<as-to-its-direct/indirect-eliciting-by-or-exploiting-of-prospectively-descalarising/subontologising-sycophantic-sophistic-interests,-as-inducing-prospective-threshold-of-institutional-and-social-desublimation>’ of <sup>79</sup>presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>14</sup> social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism>’). Further the capitalistic model as to its fabrication of winners and losers given its ‘all englobing critical delimiting/catchmenting-by-rejection of human supererogatory–progressivity possibilities’ increasingly brings peoples at loggerheads across races, classes, regions and nations with the implication that since it is centrally/critically defining as to the modern-day statal conception of social supererogatory–progressivity possibilities, there must necessarily be losers and winners with no creative supererogatory–progressivity beyond this dilemma; thus as to the fact that there can’t be a profound humanity-level creative supererogatory–progressivity as well as decolonised–capitalistic-by-statal supererogatory–progressivity so-construed as ‘anarchical individual and social supererogatory–progressivity’. Such a representation as herein articulated of the truer supererogatory–progressivity (however the ‘shallow-supererogation<sup>96</sup> of supererogatory–progressivity’) beneath the capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’ is hardly reflected today as to ‘hardened narratives of an absolutising pure capitalistic model’ as mirroring the very ruthlessness associated with the renting and skewed value-extraction capitalistic model (as so-enculturated socially and mediatically as to <sup>79</sup>presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>14</sup> social-vestedness/normativity-<discretely-implied-functionalism>). The relative veracity of supererogatory–progressivity is strongly seen with the state-driven Asian and European supererogatory–progressivity economies (with the Germans, Japanese and Chinese out-competing the U.S. with respect to trade balance and so without all the ‘grandiose capitalistic economic theorising’ but on the more veridical realism of policy-driven supererogatory–progressivity) and as even in the U.S. there is atleast a critical level of strategic supererogatory–progressivity with local states definitely adopting incentives-driven approaches of supererogatory–progressivity; all this speaking from a totalising-entailing perspective analysis of the purist capitalistic model as poorly self-sustaining of its socioeconomic framework (especially its relative irresponsibility/~~relative-unreflexivity~~ with regards to foundational externalities like education, infrastructure, well thought-out policies, collective social advancement, etc.). The bigger question that then arises has to do with the possibility for optimal human supererogatory–progressivity ‘beyond just the statism and geostrategy/states-competition muddled framework’ that is preconvergently–de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to induce skewed ‘shallow-supererogation<sup>96</sup> of supererogatory–progressivity’ as to capitalistic ‘catchmenting-by-rejection/lip-servicing/monopolising/gaming-of-the-system/charade/distraction vague/imaginary lures of social-stake-contention-or-confliction’. Taking a step aback, in-many-ways the reality of the very fundamental notion of the capitalistic model speaking of perfect markets do not exist, and rather ‘markets themselves develop as advantageously created situations after the facts’ as to the requisite human creative supererogatory–progressivity for a market to even arise; and in this respect the supposed fittest notion of capitalistic competition as to punctual/immediacy/constituted/compulsions-encumbered fitness tends to underperform the more advantageous supererogative contemplative deliberation of markets for critically efficient/optimising resource allocation/utilisation/development (as to the fact that preconverging/postconverging–de-mentatively/structurally/paradigmatically the relatively deliberative conceptualisation of markets associated with say German, Japanese, Chinese, South Korean public-policy supererogatory–progressivity economic models participate in their competitive edge over ‘vague/abstract punctual/immediacy/constituted/compulsions-encumbered fitness notion of capitalistic competition’ that speaks to an overall deliberative optimalising potential of human supererogatory–progressivity beyond any such capitalistic limitative-artifice-of-human-imaginary/metaphysical-conceptualisation as to ‘unbeholdening sublimating–nascence ontologising-depth of the full-potency of existence’ elicited existentialising–decisionality–~~as-to-disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism~~). and rather poorly interpreted by virtue critiques adopting a ‘modern take attitude/mental-

Such sophistication of thought to think in terms of inherent ontology, however ontologically-flawed with respect to Heidegger, has been further implicitly pursued by latter postmodern thinkers as of quasi-transcendental implications for construing virtue from the orientation of prospective notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity<sup>62</sup>-<profound-supererogation<sup>96</sup>-of-mentally-aestheticised~postconverging/dialectical-thinking<sup>21</sup>-qualia-schema> as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought, as implicated with the case of Derrida’s spirit insight.  Descartes seeks to affirm the ‘mereness of thought’ beyond any existing habit-and-tradition-of-thought as of non-positivism/medievalism pedantic dogmatism reasoning-from-reasoning-through/messianic-reasoning as reflected by his novel mathesis universalis even with his ontological argument something subtle and more original is happening, in that unlike many medieval-scholasticism dogmatic interpretations that construe of a supernatural permeation into the natural, in affirming the ontological argument Descartes blocks-out/passivises the supernatural from the natural with the metaphoricity<sup>57</sup> implication that the natural can be thought of operationally and in sublimation on its own terms—as-of-axiomatic-construct. Thus Descartes ‘I think therefore I am’ is rather a statement of intent as of a ‘futural way of thinking and sublimation’ and its budding-positivism apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting attitude/mental-disposition/care—and–episteme<sup>5</sup>, that is unique as ‘consciously setting up the pre-eminence of thinking in eliciting-and-resolving systemic doubting and postconvergently–de-mentating/structuring/paradigming the possibility of elucidation of any subject on this thinking educating sublimation basis’. including with respect to such implications in the natural sciences are rather ‘supposedly invalidating’ wholly with respect to the authors of such scam studies coming out with the arguments of their ‘intendedness of invalidation’; with the legitimate contention that such ploys are thus surreptitious manoeuvres for preempting a given orientation of thought ‘not because of the inherent invalidity of such orientations as of inherent theoretical knowledge arguments in undermining such orientations’ but rather as a ploy of ‘inducing popularised scientific ideology’ to surreptitiously stifle such orientations without truly engaging in undermining its theorisation.

Bogusness or non-bogusness is not a relevant scientific criteria, though granted it can be a relevant criteria for ‘surreptitious media-driven invalidation’, as science-in-practice is about ultimate cause-and-effect relationships, and in practical terms many scientific studies are rather elaborated as of ‘deferred cause-and-effect constraint’ as a reifying gesture for ultimate cause-and-effect determination. The fact that similar scam studies for the ‘intendedness of invalidation’ cannot be construed as scientifically valid with respect to any given orientation of study renders such manoeuvres intellectually void, and whatever their underlying ‘covert goals’ and however genuine their authors are of intent. It is very much important in this regard that intellectuals, whether in the natural sciences or in the social and humanities, not be covered/enframed by non-intellectual/extra-intellectual approaches to ‘acknowledged intellectual ways and approaches for intellectual argumentation’, and not even if such approaches are media-driven, so because much that is central and critical to intellectualism is about exploring all possibilities.) Central to any such prospective institutionalisation transcendental-enabling/sublimating/supererogatory~de-mentativity<sup>56</sup> meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> is the fact that the human mind is not necessarily geared to come to terms with prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought without the necessary psychoanalytic-unshackling/prospective-grounding/prospective-reification as of the developed disposition to register such implications as of their intemporal/longness-of-register-of-<sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> pertinence; as the notion of crossgenerational<sup>15</sup>de-mentation-~~(supererogatory~ontological-de-mentation-or-dialectical-de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics)~~ herein highlighted has ever always been an unconscious human mental process, wherein the mental-disposition hardly places itself in a situation of explaining how its own very present mental-disposition comes about from preceding generations mental-dispositions and drawing the implications, in going beyond excogitative-blanking as of the present in a cloistered-consciousness but which is paradoxically necessarily the framework of such transcendently implying<sup>56</sup> meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup>.  knowledge by its nature as of knowledge-notionalisation and organic-knowledge.

 Transcendental knowledge is actually institutionalising and re-institutionalising, implying it supersedes institutional practices and constructs as to the possibility for prospective question that knowledge so-construed as of prospective transcendence-and-‘charlatanic’ institutions and their practices construed as of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought specifically as extra-intellectual and pedantic orientations that undermine the advancement of their supposed prospective intellectual and emancipating vocations. Interestingly, we can garner that positivistic knowledge arose and was cultivated as of ‘its very own apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> conception of knowledge’ that superseded and didn’t recognise-and-submit to medieval-scholasticism for its validation, as it construed that the latter wasn’t meant/de-mentated/structured/paradigmed to uphold and perpetuate positivism implied transcendental knowledge as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought; and in due course, by its ~~amplituding/formative-epistemicity~~>causality<sup>9</sup> ~~as-to-projective-totalitative-implications-of-projective-~~<sup>6</sup> ~~nonpresencing,-for-explicating~relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity—ontological-~~contiguity<sup>7</sup> constraining it crossgenerationally overrode medieval-scholasticism. It is herein contended that it isn’t out of the question that a creeping and slumbering institutional-being-and-craft intellectual tedium today increasingly fails to elicit the full re-originary—as-unenframed/re-ontologising/unbeholdening/outlier-conceptualisation-~~(imbued-postconverging/dialectical-~~thinking<sup>21</sup> - ‘projective-insights’/‘epistemic-projection-in-conflatedness<sup>13</sup>’-of-notional~<sup>8</sup>deprocrypticism-prospective-sublimation)<sup>90</sup> potential for prospective intellectual emancipation, and so rather as of preconverging/postconverging—de-mentative/structural/paradigmatic institutionally-induced and societally-induced anti-intellectualism implications. The question can further be asked whether transcendental implied knowledge can actually be construed as the subject of ‘understanding’ of prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought with the latter’s ~~amplituding/formative-epistemicity~~>totalising~self-referencing-

From the prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought naïve non-transcendental ~~<amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag<sup>34</sup>~~, it may be thought/reasoned that a transcendentially projecting intemporal mental-disposition is rather uncanny about the ‘~~preconverging-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought~~ malignity reality of existence’ construed as pragmatic living, but this rather confirms the ‘dereifying irresponsibility/~~relative-unreflexivity~~’ of such temporal thought/reasoning mental-dispositions ‘caught up mainly in their 60-to-100 years of existence reality of <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup>’. Without an insight about reification and dereification, the notion of singularisation-~~as-to-the-nondisjointedness/entailment-of-prospective-<sup>61</sup> nonpresencing<sup>92</sup>~~ projected epistemic-immanence/veridical-epistemicity-relativism-determinism as it reflects ontological-completeness-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought for ontologically-veridical <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> is easily misconstrued since denaturing<sup>16</sup> of meaning in dereification will be teleologically-elevated and meaning produced as of reification will be teleologically-degraded; as so blatantly obvious particularly with the dereification manifestation of childhood psychopathy postlogism<sup>77</sup>-slantedness but then takes on a wholly covert nature as of adulthood psychopathy and social psychopathy dynamics.  and its potential to fully grasp the full-potency of existence, fundamentally underlies the protensive-consciousness referentialism of the notional~conflatedness<sup>13</sup> of notional~<sup>18</sup>deprocrypticism. However, it is equally critical to grasp the double-gesture reification~~ implied in such a postmodern-as-suprastructural conception of <sup>48</sup>human-subject-emancipating-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation-<as-to-the-nondisjointedness/entailment-of-prospective-<sup>61</sup>nonpresencing><sup>92</sup>. Such a postmodern/suprastructuralism double-gesture reification holds that knowledge involving virtue-as-ontology is truly organic-knowledge as of its appropriate attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> with respect to human social-stake-contention-or-confliction; with the adherence to the <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought-<sup>8</sup>categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology<sup>99</sup>,-for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring-<sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> of such organic-knowledge construed in intemporality<sup>52</sup> as supplanting-conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation<sup>96</sup>-of-‘attendant-intradimensional’-postconverging/dialectical-thinking<sup>21</sup>-apriorising-psychologism, whereas mechanical-knowledge is rather predispose to adhere as of temporal threshold-of-nonconviction/madeupness/bottomlining-in-shallow-supererogation<sup>96</sup>-<as-to-‘attendant-intradimensional’-prospectively-disontologising~preconverging/dementing<sup>20</sup>-apriorising-psychologism> to such mere <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought-<sup>8</sup>categorical-imperatives/axioms/registry-teleology<sup>99</sup>,-for-aposteriorising/logicising/deriving/intelligising/measuring-<sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup>. The latter point to an inappropriate attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> which is not of prospective apriorising/axiomatising/referencing-sublimating-reflexivity—beholdening to prospective institutionalisation and it is rather of preconverging-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought relation to it. More concretely, consider the practice of serfdom in Europe, or the annihilation of many Native American tribes and slavery and slave trade in the new world, while at the same time in a registry-worldview/dimension transitioning from the non-positivism/medievalism to the positivism/rational-empiricism registry-worldview with this contrastive mechanical-knowledge attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> and organic-knowledge attitude/mental-disposition/care-andepisteme<sup>5</sup>. While the full implications of a positivism/rational-empiricism organic-knowledge attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> will imply an end to such practices as of <sup>103</sup>universal human rights, ‘economic-opportunistic-and-then-enculturated tenants’ of such blatant moral supremacy and thus racial supremacy distorted the implications of the technical and social organisation advancement brought about from budding-positivism/rational-empiricism to reconceptualise by their specific interests <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> in terms-as-of-axiomatic-construct of the prior non-positivism/medievalism attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> as of its prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought, and thus justify their nefarious practices; speaking of mechanical-knowledge in positivism/rational-empiricism. Whereas progressive organic-knowledge tenants construed positivism/rational-empiricism as an openness to the potential of all societies and peoples to rather arrive at the higher possibility of positivism/rational-empiricism virtue, and so as of a <sup>48</sup>human-subject-emancipating-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation-<as-to-the-nondisjointedness/entailment-of-prospective-<sup>61</sup>nonpresencing><sup>02</sup> posture that allows for <sup>103</sup>universal human emancipation as expressed by the Quakers movement, Rousseaux, Diderots, etc. Incidentally, the positivism/rational-empiricism mechanical-knowledge contenders as of the economic-opportunism-and-then-enculturation of their nefarious practices, were very much countervailing the practice and trend within their own societies of origin undergoing-positivism/rational-empiricism-transformation and the underlying dual-language/split-mentality unscrupulousness was given away as of the ‘out-of-sight demeanour’ in their main societies, rather than being fully assumed as marking positivism/rational-empiricism progress. The occasional development of enlightenment and positivism/rational-empiricism by its technical and social organisation transformation implications wasn’t the opportunity for such societies to turn around and then dehumanise other societies and humanities that haven’t done likewise, but rather as of organic-knowledge called for a double-gesture reification in recognising that such positivism/rational-empiricism implications are about all of humanity, just as implied in preceding human cultural emancipations. Suprastructuralism or postmodernism double-gesturing of virtue doesn't function on the naïve basis of 'merely construing relative implied levels of virtue development and making relative conclusions' but rather orientate <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> to the more profound perspective of all of humanity's potential as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought as to ontological-normalcy/postconvergence and then reconstrue the possibility of all of humanity-as-of-societies to ultimately fulfil its virtuous potential; and this is the optimum and emancipating virtue disposition for all humankind and human societies. It adopts this orientation because it always put-into-question the idea of 'grounding <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> as of any specific human society relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought as fundamentally denaturing<sup>16</sup>, and likely to induce transversality-<for-sublimating-existential-eventuating/denouement, from thinking-at-first/pure-predisposition-preemptive-of-prospective-disontologising/subontologising'—as-of-prospectively-disambiguated-affirmed-and-unaffirmed-'motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing'><sup>101</sup> dehumanising of some cultures and societies by others'; as it recognises, however tepid, that all societies and humans are curious, predisposed to their emancipation and achieving optimum existential-<disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism> possibilities, and can uphold <sup>103</sup>universal values, and so as of <sup>103</sup>universal-transparency<sup>104</sup>-<transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplifying/formative-epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>>. Ultimately, such a double-gesturing hold out the possibility in reflecting holographically-<conjugatively-and-transfusively> the relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity—ontological-contiguity ~of-the-human-institutionalisation-process as of Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of- meaningfulness-and-teleology as pertinent for all humankind, whether as of internal social-progress, cultural diffusion or cultural-reappropriations. This practically translates, say considering an instance of a given traditional practice that is abhorrent to modern positivism/rational-empiricism attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup>, by implying from a postmodern perspective that emancipation truly arises when the humans come to assume as well by themselves a <sup>103</sup>universal positivism/rational-empiricism attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup> in transforming their society. We can appreciate that supposed a space civilisation come to earth, implying for instance in a position of strength that we are too violent, disorganise, etc. and thus morally inferior, and that our best interests was just to take our cue from them. Here as well, the postmodern double-gesture reification of virtue will project that we do have the potential for further development, and that to be ourselves we cannot be utterly alienated from ourselves like robots in our relationship with them, and that our curiosity and openness will correspondingly bring about our functional moral equivalence with <sup>103</sup>universal-transparency<sup>104</sup>-<transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplifying/formative-epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness<sup>92</sup>>. Further arguing that if they are truly more advanced than us, then that advancement is necessarily about a greater aetiologisation/ontological-escalation-<ontological-veridicality_commitment/otherliness_transcending/compulsions-encumbered_transcending> as of the <sup>48</sup>human-subject-emancipating-relativism-driven-recomposuring-constructivism-towards-singularisation-<as-to-the-nondisjointedness/entailment-of-prospective-nonpresencing><sup>92</sup> that will necessarily subscribe to recognising the ‘other’ that we are to them; as insightfully, grander aetiologisation/ontological-escalation-<ontological-veridicality_commitment/otherliness_transcending/compulsions-encumbered_transcending> come with relative-ontologically-veridical attitude/mental-disposition/care-and-episteme<sup>5</sup>. implications, and so as of protensive-consciousness of notional~<sup>18</sup>deprocrpticism perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection. Similarly, this author’s articulation of futural-différance as of transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/~~supererogatory~de-mentativity~~ is necessarily construed ontologically as of a rearticulated protractedness as futural différence that coincides-and-is-contiguous with a prior Derridean différance as of quasi-transcendence and evasiveness of sublimation. In both cases, this highlights that ‘decidability is not instantaneous as of inherent spontaneous identification and occurrence of decisional act’ but that decidability in enabling transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/~~supererogatory~~-de-mentativity is as of an ‘overall différance tendential-deliberation-of-decidability’ as of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening—~~as subjecting limitedness/human subpotency to ‘educated-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nasencee’<sup>23</sup>~~ process. Thus sublimation is equally reflected in the deliberateness involved in cultivating artistic, educational, technical or research capabilities/skill in the final outcomes derived forthwith, as of the quality imbued on human limited-mentation-capacity—~~as subjecting ‘educated-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nasencee’ to limitedness/human subpotency~~ to deepen itself; and this translates into human contemplation of the existential-possibilities attainable by its human-subpotency. Tendential-deliberation-of-decidability is thus the central ontological insight attached to différance as a ‘contiguously theoretical and operant phenomenological construct involving necessarily the deliberateness as of Derridean freeplay différance, as a putting-into-question exercise, and subject to ~~<amplifying/formative-epistemicity>~~causality<sup>9</sup> ~~~as-to-projective-totalitative-implications-of-prospective-<sup>6</sup> nonpresencing, -for-explicating~relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity—ontological-contiguity~~ validation before attaining defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity’; and différance as of such ‘existential-reality concreteness dynamics’ is scientific and utterly dissimilar from a speculative idealisation exercise à la Hegelian dialectics and well beyond the latter’s conceptual-patterning. Ultimately, such tendential-deliberation-of-decidability for attaining defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity, arises from more than just a blatant/flatminded notion of human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening—~~as subjecting limitedness/human subpotency to ‘educated-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nasencee’<sup>23</sup>~~ or say the vague social convention idea of talent, it is more critically beyond and about a question of human mental-disposition with respect to the prescience of existence-potency<sup>39</sup>~sublimating~nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression so-implicit as of ontology's-directedness-as-Being. This is the very meaning of organic-knowledge beyond the conception of mechanical-knowledge as-knowledge-as-a-mere-thing-to-be-acted-upon-for-given-outcomes. Organic-knowledge as such implies priorly a supplanting~conviction-as-to-profound-supererogation<sup>96</sup>—of-~~'attendant-intradimensional'~~-postconverging/dialectical-thinking<sup>21</sup>—apriorising-psychologism deference to the prescience of existence-potency<sup>39</sup>~sublimating~nascence,-disclosed-from-prospective-epistemic-digression over any human-as-mortal framing of<sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> including oneself-as-human-as-mortal, as it is human mortality-as-temporality<sup>98</sup> that is rather what is in need for further Being and consciousness development. Thus the postconverging~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of sublimation for a registry-worldview/dimension<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought, as reflected in the Derridean social ethics stance, is rather one for the 'subsumptive inventing' of the prospective ontological possibilities of prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought over human normativity/conventioning as of the latter's prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought, and so by maximalising-recomposuring <amplifying/formative~epistemicity>-totalising~renewing-realisation/re-perception/re-thought as of organic-knowledge. A nonextricatory existential-~~<disontologising/re-ontologising—aporeticism>~~ postconverging~de-mentating/structuring/paradigming of sublimation implying that the state of recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalisation, base-institutionalisation~ununiversalisation, <sup>103</sup>universalisation~non-positivism/medievalism, and positivism~<sup>80</sup>procrypticism, are successively-wanting of prospective defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity going by their successively-given mechanical-knowledge in temporality<sup>98</sup>-as-of-neuterisation<sup>59</sup>/relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>/preconverging-existential-extrication-as-of-existential-unthought. In other words, an intemporal-as-ontological mental-disposition projecting of the organic-knowledge as of prospective registry-worldview/dimension <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought in prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-axiomatic-construct-or-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought can't sidestep such implied prospective defining-transcendence and defining-sublimity, and undertake existence as of the prior registry-worldview/dimension <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought in prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>, even if it such a mental-disposition could lead to such an outcome as in H.G. Well's country of the blind or Galileo say with the medieval Establishment; despite the fact that the possibilities of such outcomes arise out of establishment Charlatanism, which knows better, but exploits lack of 'social <sup>103</sup>universal-transparency<sup>104</sup>-<transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-<amplifying/formative-epistemicity>totalising-in-relative-ontological-completeness<sup>88</sup> }'. But then it is actually a sign of 'propounded theoretical health and pertinence' when all such Establishment charlatanism comes to dodge such substantive-and-frontal articulation of prospective knowledge, and in lieu come up with worn out refrains and sidestepping manoeuvres avowing their true 'intellectual blankness' grounded on institutional-being-and-craft; as we know that in all genuinely inclined intellectual pursuits the very central tenet has always been about theoretical disputative engagement and not acts of escapism and downgrading of intellectual arguments as of 'solo media exploits of intellectual popularity'. Thus by its prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-axiomatic-construct-or-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought as futural différance, accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay<sup>2</sup> comes into terms with both <sup>79</sup>presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>14</sup> and <sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> on the basis of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>/notional-contiguity/epistemic-contiguity<sup>62</sup>-<profound-supererogation<sup>96</sup>-of-mentally-aestheticised~postconverging/dialectical-thinking<sup>91</sup>-qualia-schema> of the latter over the prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup> of notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity<sup>63</sup> ]

 and <sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>. Such an insight is enabled as of the fundamental awareness that human knowledge construction fundamentally involves two different exercises; with the first factoring in that at the fundamental level of knowledge construction humankind has a limited-mentation-capacity—~~as-subjecting-‘educated-~~ ~~unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nascence’-to-limitedness/human-subpotency~~ that needs to be developed as a ‘developed consciousness perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection able at an operative level to articulate sound-or-authentic <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> grounded on such a developed consciousness perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection.

 This explains why it is impossible for a ‘recurrent-utter-uninstitutionalised mindset

As we can get that the fundamental stake for the Copernicuses, Galileos, Descartes, etc. during the Enlightenment wasn’t just about the specific positivistic knowledge they articulated or else they would have been satisfied with just their personal curiosity and enlightenment and leave it at that, but rather they surreptitiously undermined many of the prevailing social norms and rules in trying to expound their knowledge and vision, and more critically so because they knew it is the ‘formation of a positivistic social consciousness apriorising/axiomatising/referencing/intelligibilitysettingup/measuringinstrumenting’ that would enable the anchoring of all such prospective positivistic knowledge, and this sense of things fully underscored such a more comprehensively directed project-and-purpose undertaken later by the Encyclopédistes; with the underlying insight that while a social state of generalised prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup> reference-of-thought is enabling to surreptitious Establishment charlatanism, however with increasing ‘social <sup>103</sup>universal-transparency<sup>104</sup> ~~(transparency-of-totalising-entailing,-as-to-entailing-~~amplifying~~/formative-epistemicity>totalising~in-relative-ontological-completeness<sup>89</sup>)~~’ such charlatanism is exposed for what it really is, explaining the panickiness and falsehood associated with such charlatanism as with the reactionaries to the Encyclopédistes project, as if the articulation of knowledge by itself was a threat rather than subject to disputation! Underlying as the non-speculative, non-imaginary, theoretical and conceptual possibility for such futural différance consciousness development is the notion of <sup>15</sup>de-mentation-~~(supererogatory~ontological~de-mentation-or-dialectical~de-mentation—stranding-or-attributive-dialectics)~~ which by pointing out an epistemic-break as of difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising-or-referencing<sup>24</sup>/ontological-discontinuity, underscore at once ‘both as affirmation/projection/assertion/notional~self-distantiation/dueness-validating-logicising/suitable-measuringinstrument-validating-measuring-~~as-to-postconverging-or-dialectical-thinking<sup>21</sup>~apriorising-psychologism>~~ of the consciousness in ~~relative-unreflexivity/relative-reflexivity—ontological-contiguity<sup>67</sup>/relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup> reference-of-thought~~ and as unaffirmation/deprojection/deassertion/epistemic-decadence/undueness-invalidating-logicising/unsuitable-measuringinstrument-invalidating-measuring-~~as-to-preconverging-or-dementing<sup>20</sup>~apriorising-psychologism>~~ of the consciousness in notional-discontiguity/epistemic-discontiguity<sup>63</sup>-~~between—prior-shallow-supererogation<sup>96</sup>-of-mentally-aestheticised~preconverging/dementing<sup>20</sup>~qualia-schema_and_prospective-profound-supererogation<sup>96</sup>-of-mentally-aestheticised~postconverging/dialectical-thinking<sup>21</sup>~qualia-schema>~~/relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup> reference-of-thought’, as of

As futural différance is enabled, unlike the case with the ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’, as of ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality involving human mental-disposition successive apriorising/axiomatising/referencing reprojection-or-reanticipation capacity inducing human limited-mentation-capacity-deepening—as subjecting limitedness/human subpotency to ‘~~duced unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nasence~~<sup>23</sup>; overriding the idea that the perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection of contemplation is absolutely given-and-determined as of the implication that all <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> should be as of ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising<sup>23</sup>, but rather reconceptualising the possibility of difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising-or-referencing<sup>24</sup> as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought bringing about transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/~~supererogatory~~~de-mentativity as of <sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>. Thus such a phenomenology associated with accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay<sup>2</sup> further divulges, unlike the ‘Derridean quasi-transcendental-freeplay différance’, the full possibility of human sublimation. Consider in this regard the decisive transitions-as-sublimity that occurred in physics: with ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ and the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs; wherein the successive axiomatic-constructs in prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup> and prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>, with regards to ‘traditional classical mechanics axiomatic-construct’ and the theory-of-relativity-together-with-quantum-mechanics—axiomatic-constructs as of ‘the-very-same physics <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~devolved—purview/domain-of-construal-as-intrinsic-reality/ontological-veridicality/existential-reality’ are not as of a ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising<sup>23</sup> but rather a difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising-or-referencing<sup>24</sup>; with human-subpotency aligning towards the full potency of existence which thus divulges the possibility of human sublimation as of the physics science implications today. It is interesting to note that the difference-in-nature/difference-in-apriorising-or-axiomatising-or-referencing<sup>24</sup> bringing about the successive physics axiomatic-constructs/theories are successive ‘epistemic-breaks’ from prior reasoning and are akin to ‘leaps of faith’ which then ‘establish new reasoning’ that then becomes the internal ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising<sup>23</sup> of the new physics as the new presencing; brought about from the transcendence-and-sublimity/sublimation/supererogatory~de-mentativity of <sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>. In other words, human consciousness tends to be constraint to its <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag<sup>34</sup>, and thus assumes a ‘difference-in-kind/difference-in-aposteriorising-or-logicising<sup>23</sup> mental-disposition as of <sup>79</sup>presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>14</sup>. But existence/ontology’s-directedness-as-Being as of <sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence> is beyond and not constraint by human consciousness as of its <amplituding/formative-epistemicity>totalising~self-referencing-syncretising/circularity/interiorising/akrasiatic-drag<sup>34</sup>, and thus hints-at the ontological-faith-notion-or-ontological-fideism—imbued-underdetermination-of-motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing—as-so-being-as-of-existential-reality possibilities of

ultimately epistemes are as relevant as the ontological-possibilities divulgeable by <sup>79</sup>presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>14</sup> and <sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective—ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>, such that in the case of the latter there is no prior insight about the veracity of any episteme before it is divulged with Being-development/ontological-framework-expansion—as-to-depth-of-ontologising-development-as-infrastructure-of—meaningfulness-and-teleology as <sup>79</sup>presencing—absolutising-identitive-constitutedness<sup>14</sup>. Galileo could well have possibly recasted his implied positivism<sup>56</sup> meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> in scholasticism-mysticism terms, just as Copernicus work was held back priorly in limbo, but then the implications as he perceived would have been a degradation and lost of the essence of what he was doing, and so more than just the specific scientific knowledge but more critically it warranted a psychoanalytic-unshackling into the<sup>61</sup>nonpresencing-or-withdrawal/unenframing/re-ontologising-or-metaphysics-of-absence-~~{implicated-epistemic-veracity-of- nonpresencing-~~<perspective-ontological-normalcy/postconvergence>~~~~-or-transcendental-reasoning-of-event<sup>38</sup>-as-prospective-ontology-origination perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection of positivism<sup>56</sup> meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> we entertain today. Likewise, as of such metaphoricity<sup>57</sup> episteme, the<sup>56</sup> meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup> herein implied as of its essence cannot do without this ~~{epistemic-totalising<sup>33</sup>hermeneutic/textuality/reprojecting/supererogating/zeroing/re-acuting,- {decompulsing}delinearity~for-cogency circle phenomenological ontology elucidation as of its psychoanalytic-unshackling apriorising/axiomatising/referencing- {of-~~prospectively-implicated_attendant-ontological-contiguity '~educed-existentialising/contextualising/textualising_ 'intelligibility/epistemicity/reflexivity-contiguity-<imbued-notional~cogency>' }~~~~-conflatedness<sup>13</sup>-in-~~{preconverging-disentailment-by}-postconverging-entailment~~; and the ideal backdrop for this lies in a further developed postmodern-thought phenomenological-depth of construction, as implied herein by this author as of accreting-substitutive-subsumption-as-futural-différance-freeplay<sup>7</sup>. This author conceives that at the very core to such genuine understanding of postmodern-thought is a double-gesture reification that consists of perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection and then contention/argumentation within such articulated perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection, as so implied by postmodern-thought together with other kindred though less dramatic textuality-thinkers like Gadamer and Habermas; as of the need to adopt/instigate the appropriate mindset for knowledge appraisal given the fundamental distorting effect, beyond just perception, of human limited-mentation-capacity—~~as subjecting ‘educated-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nascence’ to limitedness/human-subpotency.~~ This double-gesture reification reality for construing human knowledge amounts to a quasi-psychoanalytic-unshackling, as it reflects the fact that The-Given as of existentialism/throwness/facticity is always an insufficiently/poorly developed perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection for direct instigation of contention/argumentation aspiring for profundity and completeness. Such that this double-gesture reification of the textuality-driven intellectuals involves their ‘special focus orientations’ profundity say like genealogy with Foucault, deconstruction with Derrida, etc., and this together with transversality-~~<for-sublimating-existential-eventuating/denouement, from ‘thinking-at-first/pure-predisposition-preemptive-of-prospective-disontologising/subontologising’—as-of-prospectively-disambiguated-affirmed-and-unaffirmed-‘motif-and-apriorising/axiomatising/referencing’>~~<sup>101</sup> complementarity and criticisms of all such ‘special focus orientations’, go on to conjointly-and-fruitfully define what is postmodern-thought. Postmodern-thought as such can be analogised with the anecdote of the blind men striving to determine what an elephant is, but with each one saying authentically what the find in front of them in developing the relevant specific imageries and overall imagery of what an elephant is. This in itself is a milestone in theorisation, and as an overall conception postmodern-thought, besides the ‘special focus orientations’ of the specific textuality-driven intellectuals, is primarily about ‘consistently taking a best shot’ at reality and is not inherently driven at its core by ideology but rather ontological-good-faith/authenticity<sup>69</sup>. As such it effectively achieves a more potent construal of the human condition and knowledge especially as it is ‘driven by such transversality-~~<for-sublimating-existential-eventuating/denouement, from ‘thinking-at-first/pure-~~ long way to 'open-up'/'throw-up'/'reveal' new and coherent thought possibilities as of its grander and overall conception and spirit. Interestingly, what is central about the ontological~~bad-faith/inauthenticity~~<sup>64</sup> critique of postmodern-thought is the lack-of-insight/feinting-lack-of-insight about all these underlying elements of postmodern-thought construction: as failing to grasp/recognise the implied double-gesture reification as of its transcendentalenabling/sublimating/~~supererogatory—de-mentativity~~ implications, and by not appreciating due to 'flatmindedness'/banality/flimsiness the implications of perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection before contention/argumentation as of any given perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection, thus implying 'poor critical judgment'.

With such 'flatmindedness'/banality/flimsiness further protracting into a poor grasp of postmodern theorists 'special focus orientations' with the tendency to engage postmodern-thought as of an un insightful literal and shallow-minded/banal/flimsy reading; and with the ultimate outcome that all such naïve un insightful literal and shallow-minded/banal/flimsy readings are cumulated and summated as the entirety of the postmodern theoretical construct, and so on an apparently implied flawed logic that the discretion allowed for criticism doesn't engage the intellectual credibility of the critique, a notion that is especially abused within a media background. Such 'flatmindedness'/banality/flimsiness with respect to postmodern-thought fails to grasp that all subject-matter as of their inherently deferential-formalisation-transference as of institutional percolation-channelling-<in-deferential-formalisation-transference> are necessarily construed as of a double-gesture reification that supersedes the ordinariness/banality of day to reality of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity<sup>64</sup> and so particularly as it tends to shy away from arrogance peddled about postmodernism strangely enough speaks of the ‘ignoble arrogance’ of insight here of such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity<sup>64</sup> can be construed analogically as say in a non-positivistic social-setup where the modern disease theory is not yet socially familiar such that patients may assume that they should be cured immediately/instantly after treatment with no perspective/framing/reference/horizon/projection of appreciation for judging medicine as optimally an over-a-time-period-bodily-reparation construed as the basis of a positivist physician practice; a notion being spread and advocated by the positivist physician in the social-setup. Now consider a competing healer very much aware of such a non-positivist social-setup

~~entailing-~~amplifying/formative—epistemicity~~>totalising~in-relative-ontological-~~ ~~completeness~~’ with regards to such over-a-time-period-bodily-reparation notion and throwing a spanner in the works by pretending that the physician should confirm that patients are cured immediately as otherwise the physician must be practising witchcraft on the patients, understanding fully well the authentic disposition of the physician to affirm a practice of over-a-time-period-of-bodily-reparation for a long term dependable notion of medicine. While they are pragmatically inclined to advanced opportunistically whatever explanation to justify that their healing is immediate/instant and so involving any such stratagem like opportunistically accusing patients or some other persons for any implied failure of immediate/instant cure having the effect on the most part of shutting-off any complain or at least negative allegations about the healer's cure, and so-enabled on the basis of the healer priorly institutionalised deferential-formalisation-transference posture in the social-setup. Such a healer encouraging the social-setup notion of immediate/instant cure as a ploy (given the possibility of the positivistic disease theory conception subverting their own non-positivistic healing practice notwithstanding ontological-veracity). The manifest acts of many such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity<sup>64</sup> critiques with respect to postmodern-thought: whether when pretending to misunderstand postmodern double-gesture reification of meaningfulness, blatantly caricaturing in the most inane terms postmodern-thought, avoiding genuine intellectual-level disputation, and so rather opting for subversive <amplifying/formative><sup>8</sup> wooden-language-<imbued—averaging-of-thought-<as-to-leveling/ressentiment/closed-construct-of- meaningfulness-and-teleology -as-of-'nondescript/ignorable-void '-with-regards-to-prospective-apriorising-implications>> 'uncritical social media preaching towards sold publics-of-conquest' paradoxically while claiming not to grasp postmodern-thought, with subterfuges of unoriginal thought usurping the notion of science and intellectualism towards such uncritical publics; and all this as a manifestation of perverted intellectual institutional-being-and-craft. While postmodern-thought is not and has never been immuned from genuine intellectual criticism not only from other schools-of-thought but among postmodern and poststructuralist thinkers themselves, and this calling out of such ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity<sup>64</sup> critics is much more than an issue about postmodern-thought but about all intellectualism generally as such malpractices tend to mark the beginning of intellectual teleological-decadence-<-in-dimensionality-of-desublimating-lack-of<sup>26</sup>-(~~<amplifying/formative> supererogatory~de-mentativeness/epistemic-growth-or-~~ practices and media practice, thus rendering social and critical thought impotent. Further knowledge as understood by this author is more than just the conception of its intemporal-asontological nature but knowledge is much more completely and potently knowledge as it understands as well the implications of temporal-as-non-ontological mental-dispositions dynamics in relation to pure-ontology, and thus in the face of ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity<sup>64</sup> shouldn't take the bait of overlooking and thus falsely elevating teleologically as intellectually pertinent ontological-bad-faith/inauthenticity<sup>64</sup> rather than relating to it at its teleologically-degraded level for what it truly is, and so as part-and-parcel of a complete conception of knowledge. Ultimately, intellectual statuses are as pertinent as veridically enabling to human emancipation as of irreverence and cannot thus turn around to intimate irreverence when surreptitiously undermining knowledge of <sup>103</sup>universal consequential implications. It is herein summated that as of metaphysics-of-absence-(implicated-epistemic-veracity-of-<sup>6</sup>nonpresencing-<perspective-proto-prospective <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought as of prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>- of-axiomatic-construct-or-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought over a <amplifying/formative-as prior <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought, and that necessarily it speaks by its double-gesture reification of quasi-psychoanalytic-unshackling thus requiring a psychoanalytic-reorientation to such an implied prospective <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought ‘as of the prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-axiomatic-construct-or-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought of a better knowledge perspective/<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought before/as-preceding contention/argumentative-engagement, and so avoiding ‘flatmindedness’/banality/flimsiness. The underlying current of postmodern-thought is that our limited-mentation-capacity—~~as-subjecting-‘educed-unlimitedness/existence-sublimating-nascence’ to limitedness/human-subpotency~~ induces our prior relative-ontological-incompleteness<sup>88</sup> with regards to <sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought and its derived <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup>, with the implication that we need to a prospective relative-ontological-completeness<sup>87</sup>-of-<sup>83</sup>reference-of-thought to be able to articulate intemporal-as-ontological construal as of the internal-dialectics/différance of <sup>56</sup>meaningfulness-and-teleology<sup>99</sup>.
